

July's movie, Before Stonewall, documented the evolution of gay culture in the U.S. from the early 1920s to the Stonewall riot of 1969.

After Stonewall continues the story. Informative and serious in tone, the film traces the uglier developments as the gay backlash develops in the late 1970s. It also shows the rise of the Religious Right.

90 minutes.

Thursday August 19 at The LOFT

250 Bryant Ave., White Plains – on the campus of United Memorial Methodist Church
<http://loftgaycenter.org>

Doors open 7:00 p.m. Film starts 7:30 p.m.

There will be time for discussion after the movie.

FREE Admission AIR CONDITIONED TASTY Treats PLENTY Parking

Produced monthly by PFLAG Westchester. Sponsored by The LOFT & Center Lane.

<http://www.pflagwestchester.org>

info@pflagwestchester.org