

Playwright/director Moises Kaufman adapts his acclaimed stage play in this powerful docudrama. Set in the Wyoming town thrust into the national spotlight over the 1998 beating and murder of 21-year-old gay local Matthew Shepard, the film mixes portrayals of Laramie residents and their varied reactions to the crime with scenes of Kaufman and his theater company interviewing them.

Steve Buscemi, Nestor Carbonell, Clea Duvall, Peter Fonda, Janeane Garofalo, Laura Linney, and Christina Ricci star. 96 min.
