

Sixteen-year-old Tru is uprooted by her lesbian moms from her comfortable gay-friendly home in San Francisco and moved to a conservative, suburban community in Southern California. Tru's only friend is a closeted football player, and even that friendship is jeopardized when she starts the school's first Gay-Straight Alliance.

JULY 15 at The LOFT*

Doors open 7:00 p.m. Film starts 7:30 p.m. Discussion afterwards.

“Tru Loved’ is so much more than a charming, fun romantic comedy; it’s a film with a universal message of love and acceptance that faithfully portrays issues that challenge gay and lesbian students today in a manner that is sure to resonate with any viewer who has a heart and an ounce of human compassion. It’s the ‘Breakfast Club’ of a new generation.”
